PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Rhonda Murphy

We are told that in the All-That-Is, there is no past, no future, only the Now. That time and space are artificial constructs of the third dimension.

If there is no time, then every moment of my current life, and all of my lifetimes, and everything that has ever happened or ever will happen is happening Now. Consequently, every thought I have and every action I take have repercussions throughout all time. I am, in effect, always time travelling! What does this mean for us in practice?

If we review our childhood traumas, we have the opportunity to remove the impact on our Now by understanding and validating the motivations and actions of all those involved, including ourselves. This may involve karmic balancing from previous or future lifetimes. Remember that karmic balancing is not punishment, it is always offered with immense love. It is an opportunity for us to increase our own capacity for love, which is the perpetual purpose of the Source of All-That-Is.

So we see that the true process of forgiveness is to bring ourselves into resonance with those we thought harmed us, thus releasing our misunderstanding.

If we meditate and resonate with “previous” lifetimes, we have the opportunity to release traumas there, as well. If we resonate with “future” lifetimes, it is possible to prophesy the future, as did Nostradamus and the writer of the Book of Revelation. These fellows are resonating with their current incarnations in the Now!

We can also bring ourselves into resonance with current folks that we differ or disagree with. Perhaps there is someone in the news that you learn about. Can you resonate with them? Understand and feel the pain that brought them to this action you dislike? Folks want to be heard and understood, but it does not have to be face-to-face. It is just as healing to be understood remotely, silently, lovingly, by strangers.

Because when/where there is no time or space, there is no ALL, no OTHER, no UNKNOWN, no STRANGER. Only a single, solitary ONE.

Happy New NOW, Rhonda Murphy
